| Facilities | Excellent for maximum of 125 students; starting a small library | Adequate for that part of the country if cleaned up and efficient maintenance established; very dirty: slovelnly; library meager | Nearly adequate, but a little run-down; buildings old but servicable; library: not given much attention administratively | Both extremes: very old and ultra-modern and fine; a very fine plant when old original building is modernized; reading room, but not much material available |
| Equipment | Very good, but more of it needed in laboratories, clinic & dissection too meager | Inadequate in laboratories, clinic & saw no real dissection provisions | Fair- Laboratories still somewhat inadequate. Did not get to see dissection provisions | Clinic equipment is excellent. Laboratories good but perhaps a little small for size of the school. Pretty good dissection laboratory |
| Faculty | Both extremes: one very good university man - some very mediocre DCs. McClintock dominates faculty | One or two fairly good men - others mediocre. Dr. Parr doing too much of the teaching | Did not meet any of them. Harring leaning heavily on Powell who really runs with the P&S crowd in St. Louis | Only met 2 or 3 faculty members. Not particularly impressed. |
| Students | appearance: fair; morale: fair | appearance: not too good; morale: not good | Did not see any students as my visit occurred late at night | Only saw a few; visited on Sunday |
| Corporate Structure | Proposes willing to conform to N.C.A. requirements. School still owned by McClintock & Christenson | $35,000 notes owed to Dr. Parr. Profession should underwrite the school, pay off Dr. Parr & institute new administration | Still a one man school - a strong P&S undercurrent in St. Louis making a play for the school through Powell. A potential "California situation" here | Coggins states Logan nothing more than public relations man for the school. Fact is, it is still a Logan, one man school. |
| Remarks | A bold front, but wants to get out before enrollment drops much more | Parr only looking out for himself. No real interest in education | Harring loyal to Council objectives, but prudent as to his own investments | One of best school plants in the country, but disloyal to objectives of Council |
